National Community Action Foundation (NCAF)

The National Community Action Foundation, founded in 1981 and based in Washington, DC, is a leading voice on federal anti-poverty policy and serves as the federal advocate for the nationwide Community Action network, comprised of locally-based, anti-poverty organizations known as Community Action Agencies and their state and federal partners. NCAF is a 501(c)(4) non-profit membership organization that can lobby and engage in politics. NCAF is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of Community Action Agency executive directors from each of the 10 regions of the Community Action network and an at-large board member elected by NCAF members. NCAF does not receive any federal funding.

Local Community Action Agencies and their state and national partners financially support NCAF through contributions, CAPFacts newsletter subscriptions or by arranging Board of Director briefing calls or workshops on policy, Congress, advocacy and the history.
